Manderson, from the committee on military affairs, reported the bill granting the Salt Lake & Fort Douglas Railway Company the right of way across the Fort Douglas military reservation in Utah. Calendar.

The Senate bill appropriating $100,000 for the improvement and enlargement of the courthouse and postoffice at Omaha was passed.

Senate then resumed consideration of the Eads Tehuantepec bill, and Hear concluded his argument in support of it. The bill was then laid aside, temporarily.

Dolph introduced a bill to authorize Dallas City to construct a bridge across the Columbia River, Oregon. Referred.

The Senate bill to authorize the Billings, Clark's Fork, & Cooke City Railway Company to construct and operate a railway through the Crow Indian reservation, was passed.

The Senate bill granting the Utah M. & N. Railroad Company the right of way through the Uncompaggre and Uintah reservations, in Utah, was passed.

The Senate then proceeded to consider the postoffice appropriation bill. Plumb, a member of the committee on appropriations, having charge of the bill, made an explanatory statement. With the exception of a single item, he said, the bill, so far as the appropriations of money went, was just as it came from the House, and that it was precisely according to the estimates of the department. The House bill was amended by inserting an item providing that no boxes for collection of mail matter by carriers shall be placed inside of any building, except a public building, or a building which is freely open to the public during business hours, or a railroad station. The amendment as to the transportation of South American mails was not taken up for consideration, as it was expected to lead to debate; and the bill was laid aside till tomorrow.

The Senate bill for negotiations with the Shoshone and Bannock tribes of Indians, for the relinquishing of the title to so much of the lands of the Fort Hall reservation as is required for the uses and purposes of the Utah & Northern railway company and the Oregon Short Line railway company, was passed.

The House bill to divide the western judicial district of Arkansas into two divisions, was passed with amendments.

The Senate bill granting to the State of California 5 per cent. of the net proceeds of the sales of lands in that State was passed, yeas 41, nays 9.—Messrs. George, Maxey, Kildeberger, Saulsbury and Vance.

The House bill empowering the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway Company to construct and operate a railway through Indian Territory was passed.

A motion to reconsider the vote passing the bill was entered by Mr. Platt, so that he might have time to examine it.

Adjourned till to-morrow.

HOUSE.

At 3.45 p.m., the President's private secretary was announced. He presented a message from the President, transmitting, without his approval, the dependent parents' pension bill. The reading of the message was followed with an attention more strict than is generally accorded to such documents. At its conclusion, Watson (Indiana), moved that the bill and the accompanying message be referred to the committee on invalid pensions, promising that they would be reported back within the coming week. Motion agreed to, 139 to 27.

The House at its evening session passed thirty-five pension bills, and then adjourned.

In the Fourteenth Ward.

Without doubt the party given in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Hall last evening, was the most pleasant one yet held there. Although it was strictly a "square party" (absence of "round" dances), it was thoroughly enjoyable. The conveniences provided for the guests was a prominent feature of the entertainment, the side rooms or wings of the building having been fitted up with furniture, carpets, pictures, etc., transforming them into veritable parlors. The hall, also was tastefully decorated. The affair reflects much credit on the promoters, Messrs. H. L. Hall, John M. Whittaker and E. Y. Taylor. Considerable merriment was occasioned by the distribution of "crackers," each containing a paper cap or headband which was worn during the remainder of the evening. Owing to the lateness of beginning, it was found necessary to shorten the programme to fifteen minutes.

Until After the Elections.

BERLIN, February 11.—The National Gazette attributes the conduct of the French Chamber of Deputies in postponing the debate on the French military bill to a desire on the part of France to defer the discussion of her military affairs until after the German elections.
